Genoa, June 10. The Duke de Veraguay, the new Viceroy of Sicily, went hence the last week, to take possession of that Government; this Senate having lent him two of their Galleys, to carry him to Palermo. Several Vessels are arrived here from Provence; and we hear by them, that the French fit out their Galleys at Marseilles, and some Men of War at Thoulon.

Venice, June 15. They are fitting here two new Men of War, of about 60 Guns each, which may be ready to sail towards the end of this month with divers other Vessels laden with Provisions, Ammunition, &c. for the Levant. The last Letters from those Parts give an Account, that the Captain-General was gone to Sea with the Fleet of this Republick; and that he would endeavour to meet with, and engage the Turkish Fleet, which was come to Scio, consisting of 36 Ships of War, including those of Barbary. The last Advices from Dalmatia say, all was very quiet on that side; and that the Turks had sent all the Forces they could spare to their [illegible]

Vienna, June 20. The young Duke of Lorain arrived here this day from Inspruck; and after a Stay of few days at this Court, will proceed for Hungary, to make the Campagne in the Imperial Army. The last Advices from thence do all speak of the Siege of Temeswaer, as a thing that was fully resolved on: The Army was, when these Letters were written, in the Neighbourhood of Segedin; and some of them give us reason to believe, that the place is before this time invested, and the Trenches opened. We do not yet hear that the Enemy have any Forces together, to disturb us in this Enterprize: The Sultan, according to our last Accounts from Adrianople, was still there; and the time of his Departure for Hungary, was not yet fixed, by reason several Bassa's, whom he expected with their Troops, were not arrived. Count Teckeley is, with his Family, at Constantinople; but seems to have no great Credit at the Port. The Count de Starcemberg, Governor of this City, took the 15th Instant a Review of the 4000 Saxons who came hither by Water from Lintz; and on the 17th they went again on board their Vessels, and proceeded for Hungary. A Regiment of Foot, which the Elector Palatin sends to the Emperor's Assistance, arrived here the 15th, and is likewise gone on to join the Imperial Army.

Berlin, June 26. The Letters from Poland tell us, that the Archbishop of Gnesne had, according to custom, taken upon him the Administration of the Government during the Inter-Regnum; and had ordered Summons to be sent out, for the Gentlemen that have Voices at the Election, to meet in the usual manner. Whether any body will be set up besides Prince James, Son of the deceased King, is not yet known; but 'tis probable there will, on such an occasion, be several Parties, (who have not yet had time to form themselves,)
